STUDENT LETTER EXCERPT

My name is Jiratchay. You can call me Peace. My relationship with my family is great! We always watch TV, listen to music and sing songs. I play the piano whenever we have free time and we exercise sometimes, too. For instance cycling, swimming, badminton and running. I try to help her whenever I can, like helping her in the kitchen, washing the laundry as well as tidying up my room are the things that I always have to do. I always get up at 5 o'clock in the morning. Then I go to school. I finish my class at 3.30 p.m. I go back home then I do my homework. When I finish, I wait for my parents to have dinner. On weekend, I like going out to eat and go shopping. But my favorite activity that I like the most during long weekend is to travel to mountains, waterfall and sea. It feels good, fresh and peaceful.

PARENT LETTER EXCERPT

My daughter "Peace" is our only lovely child. She is quite good in both her studies and activities. She's hard-working, caring, open-minded and very optimistic about her life. "Peace" is fascinated about the USA. She has dreamed of traveling to this country for a long time. She is interested in its culture, language and livelihood. At first, we didn't know how to cope with her wish for a high school year because at this point we could hardly imagine living without her for such a long time but she convinced us by showing her reason and willingness to experience new things. She talks to us about her feelings and expectations. She is looking forward to see a foreign country and its culture and meet new people. She is sociable, open-minded, responsible and honest.
