STUDENT LETTER EXCERPT

I'm Marcio Tulio and I live in Spain. My daily routine on weekdays it's wake up at half past six, then I have breakfast, I wear my school uniform and six forty five I go to school. When I arrive from school I usually play computer games, check my social networks, listen to music and chat with my friends. On weekends my routine is different; I wake up between 10AM and 12PM. On weekends I like to hang out with my friends, go to the movie theater or I do the same things I do on weekdays. Fridays and Saturdays I go to bed later, between 11PM and 2AM. I think a good point in my personality is that I'm really calm and happy and a bad point is that I'm lazy and disorganized. In my opinion, the main purpose to live abroad is the possibility to exchanging knowledge and culture of my home country and the host country.

PARENT LETTER EXCERPT

Marcio is a responsible and calm boy. He's usually quiet and shy. He likes the internet and enjoys playing online with his friends. He is a very good student and he likes sports very much. His favorite sports are tennis and soccer. He is a gift sent by God to our lives. He is the youngest of my three children and we love him very much. We hope that his host family takes good care of him and we are very thankful for their blessed hospitality.

BECOMING A HOST FAMILY

We are looking for families just like yours – who are willing to help a high school student's dream come true!

- Our families are interested in other cultures and will experience it first hand by opening their heart and home to one of our foreign exchange students.
- Show generous hospitality, understanding and enthusiasm that will build lasting relationships with international students from around the world.
- Seek the experience of a lifetime and travel the world without leaving home.
- Experience our country through different eye's and help make a difference in the world.
- Students become part of your family and become like one of your own children.
- Receive strong support from a local Community Representative and Regional Director.
- Provide a loving home and meals for the year.
- Exchange students have their own insurance and personal spending money.

*NOTE*: Student photos are available after host families have completed an initial application.
