STUDENT LETTER EXCERPT

My name is Phichayaporn or you can call me Bam. Most people see me for the first time thought that I'm a quiet person and private person. After they know me, they say I'm cheerful and friendly. My favorite activities are listening to music, reading novels, taking photos and playing basketball. On holiday, we always go to the beach. I can't swim but I really like the sea because Thailand doesn't have snow, so I hope I will get to see it in the USA. and I want to try some winter sports. My father and my mother do their own business. They work very hard and very busy. But they are happy to do it. They are very tired but they never give up. We sometimes watch movies and sometimes go shopping when I have free time. Sometimes my mother and I go to the park and run together. Sometimes my father takes me to visit my grandmother at her house.

PARENT LETTER EXCERPT

Bam is our only child. She has a dream to be an exchange student in the USA and be good at English. She wants to travel in the USA. Bam looks like a private person because she is the only child. But she is cheerful, outgoing and extravagant. At home, she always studies hard. Also she does many activities at school, too. She can do housework like sweeping the room, mopping the floor, making her bed and washing the dishes. If you want Bam to do something, you can tell her. If she can't do, you can teach her. She likes to learn new things. I want Bam to be good at something that she wants to be. I want her to live and solve problems by herself. I want her to grow up and can take care of herself and follow her dream. If she is not nice, please give her advise like she is your own child.
